WHY WORK WAS SECRET WAS A FUGITIVE

were kept to themselves. They did not take me into their confidence and I do not believe Pinkham has improperly influenced the Commission in its endeavor to get at facts. We all want the truth."

But the governor, like other men, when speaking under strong excitement, seems to have lost the precise recollection of past matters in the strong feeling experienced regarding present ones. If at the time he was making this statement he had had Pinkham's report in his hand and had looked at the very early pages of it, he wouldn't have made the statement.

The report now in the Governor's hands contains, on its very first pages, copies of the letters and the cablegram from Governor Carter which sent the Commission on its hunt for information. The first reference to the Commission, chronologically speaking, is in the form of a cablegram from Governor Carter to Acting Governor Atkinson in which he specifically directs that the investigation shall be conducted privately. The cablegram is undated, but it may be presumed from what follows to have reached here on July 16 last. It runs thus:

"Atkinson, Acting Governor, Honolulu:

"Request Labor and Builders' organizations privately investigate labor and industrial situation appoint Pinkham plan supervise investigation and manage expense."

Acting Governor Atkinson forwarded the cable to Pinkham with so much elucidation as he could throw on the matter, though that does not appear to be very much. His letter was as follows:

"Executive Chamber, Honolulu, Hawaii.

"L. E. Pinkham, Esq., Honolulu.

"Governor Carter has sent me a cablegram, a copy of which I enclose. I take it to mean that he wants a report on the general labor and industrial conditions of the Territory of Hawaii, and that he wishes you to prepare the report. I would therefore most respectfully request that you take the matter in hand forthwith.

"I have the honor to be, Sir,

"Your obedient servant,

"A. L. C. ATKINSON,

"Acting Governor."

The matter was finally clinched by the Governor on his return from the mainland when he wrote to Pinkham and Calahan as chairmen of the two committees confirming his instructions by cable and again directing that the investigation be private.

This letter, which is reproduced on the first page of the huge Pinkham report, is as follows:

"Executive Chamber, Honolulu, Hawaii, Aug. 18, 1904.

"Messrs. L. E. Pinkham and Thomas Calahan, Chairmen of Committees Builders' and Traders' Exchange, Trades and Labor Council, Honolulu.

"Gentlemen—May I confirm the instructions given by me to Acting Governor Atkinson by cable, in my absence from the Territory, and by Acting Governor Atkinson to Mr. Pinkham, under date of July 16, which requested the Labor and Builders organizations to privately investigate the labor and industrial situation of the Territory.

"And I believe you will not fail to conduct your investigation in the most impartial manner, reporting on the classes and conditions of all labor in these islands, examining all classes of agricultural industry, from those requiring the least outlay of capital to the largest corporations that exist here, and that you may be able to have this report ready so that the very latest information can be in hand before Congress meets.

"Very sincerely yours,

(Signed)

"G. R. CARTER, Governor."

From the foregoing it will be apparent that while the Governor may be correct in his idea that publicity is not needed in every case, the responsibility for the secrecy with which Pinkham conducted his enquiry does not lie with Pinkham himself, nor was it necessarily the wish of the members of the commission that their plans were kept to themselves.

KAUAI RIOTERS PLEAD GUILTY

BOTH THOSE FROM MAKAWELI AND THOSE FROM KILAUEA PLEAD GUILTY IN THE CIRCUIT COURT—JUDGE HARDY FINED THE JAPANESE $100 EACH AND KOREANS HALF THAT AMOUNT—JAPANESE PAY BUT KOREANS CAN NOT.

LIHUE, January 6.—All of the Kilauea rioters who were defended by Ex-Judge A. S. Humphreys, pleaded guilty and were fined $50 apiece by Judge Hardy, costs remitted. The Korean rioters represented by J. S. Perry upon appointment by the Court had in the first instance pleaded not guilty, but upon the advice of their counsel, the plea was changed and a plea of guilty entered. Judge Hardy fined them, ten in number, $50 each, except one small boy, fourteen years old, who was fined $5. The spectators in the court room immediately took up a collection and paid the boy's fine. These Koreans will have to work out their fine on the public roads at the rate of fifty cents a day. They in effect were fined twice as much as the other Kilauea rioters, because they have already been in jail three months awaiting trial, they having been unable to give bail. It will take them three months and ten days to work out their fine just imposed. The Makaweli rioters, fourteen in number, represented by W. A. Kinney, pleaded guilty as charged on last Friday morning, upon the advice of their counsel, and were fined $100 each without costs. The fine in this case was made larger than the fine of the Kilauea rioters for the reason that the Makaweli rioters were more frolicsome and it took practically the whole plantation to quell the mob.

LINDSAY DECLINES

Governor Carter's scheme for filling Judge Gear's place on the bench by transferring Judge Matthewman from the Third Circuit and appointing Judge Alex Lindsay to Matthewman's place, has fallen flat after all. It was a beautiful scheme on paper but it would not work because Judge Lindsay does not want to go to the big island. Honolulu is good enough for him.

Meanwhile the Governor is determined to bring Matthewman here and is anxiously casting about for some one to fill the Judge's place. Any nice young lawyer who thinks that he would like to be a Judge, and who will promise to be good, would do well to apply early.

LAW EXAMINATIONS

With bare fore-furrowed brows "Sonny" Cunha, H. A. Heen, H. T. Mills and E. G. Ferreira, all aspiring law-keepers, sat in Judge Robinson's court room today and wrote away at their examinations for admission to the bar of Hawaii. Attorney R. B. Anderson, acting as school master for the nonce, sat on the bench and watched the candidates at their work.

OPULAUBO, BELIEVED TO BE A LEPER HAS EVASDED THE AUTHORITIES MANY YEARS.

After being a fugitive from the authorities for six years, Opulaubo a leper was caught this morning by a posse of police under command of Lieutenant Sam Leslie. It was thought that the sick man would make a savage resistance against capture so Leslie took the precaution to have a sufficient force of mounted men to enable him to take the man at all hazards. But by the exercise of a little nerve and diplomacy, Leslie was able to persuade the sick man to surrender without resistance.

Opulaubo became a leper ten years ago. For some years he was able to conceal the fact but by degrees the health officials finally learned of his condition and tried to apprehend him so as to have him sent to the Molokai leper settlement. Opulaubo evaded these efforts and went to a place in the Waiolua district where he remained in hiding for six years. Nobody who learned of his presence informed the authorities and for four years he continued unmolested but about two years ago the authorities learned of his whereabouts and went in search of him. He heard of his danger and escaped, making his way to his former home back of the insane asylum. For the last two years Opulaubo remained there in hiding, few people but his family knowing of his presence.

Six months ago in order to allay any suspicion the authorities may have had, the news was sent out that the man had died. The report was generally believed until yesterday when the health officials learned positively that Opulaubo was still alive and was in hiding at his old home. The authorities were warned to be careful in taking the man into custody as he had a rifle and would defend himself to the last extremity, killing his assailants if necessary to escape. The officers were advised that the man made a habit of going about at night.

Officer Leslie decided that it would be unwise to visit the place at night for there was a possibility that the man might be absent and would learn that the authorities were seeking to take him into custody. The Lieutenant accompanied by Health Officer Pratt, Lot Lane an employee of the Board of Health, and about six mounted officers surrounded Opulaubo's house early this morning. When the son-in-law of the sick man appeared Leslie said that he desired to speak to Opulaubo and went into the house accompanied by Dr. Pratt. The police officer explained to Opulaubo that he had come to take the sick man to the detention camp as the health authorities wanted to determine if Opulaubo was a leper in case the man were found to be well he would be permitted to return home. Opulaubo replied that he had been sick ten years and had been hiding for the last six years, so he thought it would be better to accompany the authorities and be sent to the settlement. A rifle was found in the room occupied by Opulaubo but the weapon was not loaded. The board of health conveyance was sent after the sick man this morning and he was taken to the Kalahehi detention camp.
